Certificate Course in Poultry Farming

In competitive world and increased population, the unemployment problem is increasing day by day. To get self employment, we planned to start certificate course in poultry farming which is a part of Applied Zoology to the final year B.Sc students. The students were interested in learning programme. The Poultry Farming programme is also part of the university curriculum, so it become some what easy to learn for the students.

We framed BoS members for development curriculum for the certificate course. We conducted BoS meeting in our college to frame the curriculum for Poultry Farming certificate course. We referred different syllabi of university and prepared the curriculum of 31 hours.

We prepared complete chart of the programme with time table and limited the registration of students to 50 students. The curriculum comprises theory classes and practical's. For easy understanding, we arranged to visit Poultry Farm situated near Muddebihal town, "The Rahul Poultry Farm. It is in the village Dhavalagi of Muddebihal Taluk. We requested to get permission for visit the Farm in the month of January 2020.

In the Rahul Poultry Farm a trainer Shri. Kanakappa S. Sasanur gave the students complete knowledge about Poultry Farming Practically. After completion of the Certificate Course, the Certificate were distributed to the students. The students shared their experience that they got complete knowledge with satisfaction and shown interest in starting the Poultry keeping process.
