6.1.2 The effective leadership is visible in various international practices such as decentralization and participative management.

Decentralization and participative management exists in the Institution. College has ample scope for decentralization and participative management. Our esteemed Management and principal regularly instill the confidence among every staff of the college to shoulder the assigned responsibilities with utmost commitment and professionalism. For the smooth conduct of curricular, co-curricular and extracurricular activities and activities of support service units i.e., NSS, NCC, Scouts and Guides, Career Guidance and Placement cell, etc. responsibilities are allocated to all the staff for decentralization of administration. The IQAC co-ordinator plans on its effective implementation.

Participative management is practiced in various activities like to conduct of Induction programme, different committees and cells such as examination committees, time table committees, establishment of students welfare cells, women empowerment cell etc.

Participative management is practiced some activities like conduct of Mega Job fair, International conference, five days International Faculty Development Programme, National level Webinar and National level Seminar.

A case study of National level seminar on Folk Traditions and Experiments: theoretical thoughts were conducted by the department of Kannada on 28.06.2024.

National level Seminar was inaugurated by Mata Jogati Manjamma, Padma shri awardee, inaugurated the programme and said that children should imbibe human values along with quality education. Continuous study is very necessary to achieve success in life. Gender studies on minorities in folk literature need to be done. She said that surveys of the artists need to be done.

Belagavi R.P.D College Kannada Department HOD Dr. H.B. Kolkar addressed in his keynote that searching for folk literature means searching for human culture. Folk literature is an oral tradition, He said that folk literature research and field work should be done/

Dr. Y.Y.Kokkanavar Co-ordinator Government First Grade Women's College and PG centre, Jamakhandi delivered lecture on "Diversity Kannada Folk Literature form, Technique and Structure".

Welcome to the International Faculty Development Program (FDP) hosted by MGVC Arts, Commerce and Science College, Muddebihal, in collaboration with their IQAC and the Department of Commerce. This program is designed to enhance the skills and knowledge of faculty members across various disciplines, fostering excellence in education and research. The FDP aims to equip participants with the latest advancements in adaptability, innovation, and continuous learning, empowering them to become effective educators and researchers in the global landscape.

About the FDP

In a rapidly evolving world where technological advancements shape the destiny of industries, the ability to adapt to change has become a defining factor for success. This notion holds true across various sectors, from car producers navigating shifting market dynamics to oil companies adjusting to emerging exploration technologies. Simulating these scenarios through code provides invaluable insights into the profound correlation between adaptability and profitability. In our simulations, we explored the pivotal role of adaptability, Innovations and Research in the careers of professionals. In continuous learning Through Research, adaptability, specialization, and other skills in securing a prosperous future.

Report

National Level Seminar was Inaugurated by Mata Jogati Manjamma, Padma Shri awardee, inaugurated the program and said that children should imbibe human values along with quality education. Continuous study is very necessary to achieve success in life. Gender studies on minorities in folk literature need to be done. He said that surveys of the artists need to be done. Belagavi R.P.D College Kannada Department HOD Dr. HB Kolkar addressed in his keynote that searching for folk literature means searching for human culture. Folk literature is an oral tradition. She said that folk literature research and field work should be done. Dr. Y.Y Kokkanavar Co-ordinator Government First Grade Women's College and PG Centre, Jamakhandi delivered lecture on "Diversity Kannada Folk Literature form, Technique and Structure".

The programme was presided over by Mr. Ashoka Tadasada, Secretary, S.G.V.C Vidya Prasarak Trust's, Muddebihal in his speech he told that Kannada Folk Literature has a long History. Many folk writers have contributed with precious works to the folk literature. In this regard such seminars have acquired their own values and helpful to us. So everyone should take advantage of it. Dr. H.B. Naduvinakeri, Dr. Nagaraja Murugoda, Dr. R. H. Sajjan, Prof. S.S. Hugar were presented their papers. Delegates interacted with resource persons and presenters.

The valedictory of the seminar was presided over by the principal of the college, Prof. S.N. Poleshi said that it is a matter of pride of our College has achieved A+ level results in the field of education. It is a great of happiness us that the Kannada department organized a national level seminar. IQAC Co-ordinator Dr. M.I. Biradara, NAAC co-ordinator. Dr. A. A. Mulla, Taluka President of the Folk Council Mr. A.R. Mulla, Chidananda Sa Katava, HOD of Kannada Department Dr. Prakash Naragunda were presence. The welcome and introductory remarks of the program were given by the co-ordinator Dr. Prakash Naragunda, Anchored by Prof. V.S. Lamani. Finally Dr. Basavaraja Hadapada given vote of thanks.

Report

Date: 10-07-2024

Department of Education organized one day state level online seminar on "status role and responsibilities of teachers and students in contemporary higher education in rural area. on 09-07-2024 11-00 a.m. The purpose of the programme was to know and discuss education status and responsibility of stakeholders / institutions in higher Education at the days of technology. The programme was began with the welcome speech by Dr. M. I. Biradar IQAC coordinator and is followed by the inauguration message of Sri. Ashok. S. Tadasad chairman college governing body and Secretary of the trust. The Chairman proudly expressed his happiness in organizing the programme by our rural area college accredited with A+ grade by NAAC. Prof. S.S. Hugar organizing secretary and Head, department of Education introduced the honorable resource persons in each session of the programme.

Keynote speaker Dr. Yarriswamy Director, Dean School of Education RCU Belagavi, highlighted about the system of education, role and quality of education in earlier days and at present. Also how the education is responsible for reducing the poverty and inequality of society, ensuring access to quality education for all, in particular for poor and rural students, issues related to the availability of higher education facilities to all categories of students. Dr. T.V. Somashekhar Assistant professor RIE Mysore, addressed on recent trends / changes, research, use of technology and greater multidisciplinary approach, challenges in higher education. Those who have skills to use technology have access to extraordinary valuable resources, people should have higher qualification and intellectual capacity, unless youth develops, expertise they fall behind and may be marginalized and isolated he added. Dr. V.A. Benakanal retired Principal, college of Education and PG center Bagalakot shared his thoughts on role of teachers, students and about present. Scenario of the teaching learning process. Also how best education could be made socially relevant and college could work in community to improve teacher and students relationship. Traditional method of teaching, teachers centered education. How the learner possessing certain knowledge himself construct knowledge with the instructions given by the teachers (facilitators). He called the students and teachers to adopt technology in teaching learning process which is need of the hour.

The programme was very informative and innovative. The participates were highly benefitted by the programme. Lastly the programme was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. A. A. Mulla NAAC coordinator, Prof. S. R. Hatti compared the programme. 102 participates from various colleges were registered at the online programme and E-certificates were issued to those who have attended the programme and submitted the feedback.
